Hello!

I hope all of you had a nice Thanksgiving. This time of year makes me thankful for so many things - family, friends, a warm home, a job that allows me to help others. I have so much to be thankful for; most of us do. Let's remember that when times get tough, we can always find something positive, something to be thankful for.

Today we learned that one of our friends, Alice Coe, passed away and some of our seniors are broken hearted. Alice was a very special lady who had a beautiful smile and a courageous heart. She will be missed at senior center. She fought her battle as brave as any warrior that ever lived. That is what I will remember about Ms. Alice. This holiday season, let's try to be kinder than we have to and nicer than we need to because someone, somewhere might need to be lifted up just a little bit.

Sandra

Merry Christmas!
